

Fiery Furnace

The bible tells,
Of Babylon,
When Nebuchadnezzar,
Held the throne.
He made an image,
Carved out of gold.
He made a law,
And it was told,
Hear ye people,
All over the land,
Bow and worship,
When you hear the band.
Everyone bowed,
But three said no.
Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.
The king said, "Boys,
if you don't bow,
You're hitting the fire,
Right about now."
The boys said "King,
We serve God in earnest.
Ain't afraid,
Of no fiery furnace."

They were thrown in the fire,
One, two, three.
The king took a look,
And said "Oh, me!
They're not even singed.
And one thing more,
I threw in three.
Now I see four."
The king said "Boys,
What more can I do?
We'll all worship God.
Skip the barbeque!"
