

Follow the Instructions

Items needed:

Small prizes to give to the children who pass the test
A copy of the following test for each student

Instructions:

Pass out the tests to your class face down. Explain that each student that passes the test will receive a prize. Emphasize they will have only five minutes in which to complete it. Only those whose test is totally completed with no errors will receive the prize.

Tell the children to begin. At the five minute mark, tell them to stop.

Lesson:

Many people do not pass this test simply because they do not follow the instructions.

There are people who make the same mistake in life. Just as this test is simple if the instructions are followed, some people make their lives more difficult by not following the instructions. We have an instruction book for life. It is called the bible. If we follow its instruction not only will we have a home in heaven when this life is over, but we will also avoid many difficulties as we live our life.

Carefully read all of the following instructions before beginning.

1. Write your name at the bottom of the page.
