

Jairus' Daughter

Mark 5:22-43

There was a man who was a ruler in the synagogue. His name was Jairus.

Jairus came and fell at Jesus feet. Jairus told Jesus that his daughter was very sick. She was at the point of death, and he asked Jesus to come and lay His hands on her and heal her so that she would live. The girl was just twelve years old.

While they were on their way, someone came from Jairus' house and told him that his daughter was dead. As soon as Jesus heard those words, He told Jairus "Don't be afraid, only believe."

Jesus continued with Jairus to his house. Jesus only allowed three of His disciples to go with Him. Peter, James, and John. When they arrived at Jairus' house there were people there crying and mourning.

Jesus said, "Why are you crying? The girl is not dead. She is just sleeping."

The people who had been crying, now started laughing, mocking what Jesus said.

Jesus put everyone out of the house except for the girl's parents, and the three disciples He brought with Him. He took the girl by the hand and said "Arise."

Immediately the girl stood up and walked! Jesus told her parents to give her something to eat.

This is just one of the many miracles Jesus did when He walked on the earth. Jesus healed the sick and raised the dead. Jesus had compassion on people. He still does. He loves us and we can talk to Him in prayer.
